

ETHICS VIOLATION COMPLAINT FORM

Complaints related to ethics violations can be submitted using the Ethics Violation Complaint Form. The IBCA Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct is essential to upholding the Council's values and meeting its goal of encouraging the highest ethical, educational, and professional standards among its candidates and charterholders. All current and aspiring Charterholders must comply with these codes and Standards.

CIBP® Charterholders must demonstrate their commitment to ethical practices and adhere to the regulations set in the IBCA Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

Any individual in violation of the code or under suspected violation is answerable to any questionable action. Such actions may include revocation of the registration, revocation of the right to use the CIBP® Charter as a designation, or revocation of their earned credential.

To submit a complaint, attach the necessary documents along with this form and submit it here.
